

Before the telephone privacy act in Indiana, we received phone calls from telemarketers almost nightly. Since the act went into effect we are not bothered at all in the evening.